

South Island White Ribbon Ride

So You want to become a White Ribbon Rider.

The good news is we are always on the lookout for the right sort of people to join the ranks. Before you go any further, we suggest you go to www.whiteribbon.org.nz and have a look at the resources there and see if you think this is something that aligns with your beliefs and values. Not all our riders are past victims or perpetrators of domestic violence. We are just a group of ordinary people from all walks of life, who believe in the kaupapa of White Ribbon and want to share the messages with all.

The two main questions we ask are:

1. Are you willing and able to take the time to join rides, and
2. Are you willing to take the White Ribbon pledge, to “Stand up, Speak out and Act, to stop mens violence against Women”

If so then please fill out the form and return to the secretary at Te Waipounamu Riders Against Domestic Abuse Trust, and someone will make contact with you soon.
